

Melbourne

This established specialised metal finishing business has been operating successfully for over 30 years from a purpose-built facility in Melbourne's key manufacturing hub.

It delivers high-quality black oxide coating services with a simple, niche operation across diverse manufacturing industries. One working owner supported by just two employees on a straightforward 4.5-day week, the operation features low overheads, repeatable processes and is the only business in Australia to focus exclusively on this process.

Loyal industrial clients and a protected niche ensure consistent revenue and minimal complexity - perfect for seamless handover.
